

Cultural Competency: The Foundation for an Inclusive Environment

Workshop Description

Participants will begin the practice of developing cultural competency skills during this interactive workshop. The goal is to make clear that cultural competence is an active and ongoing process that one attempts to aspire rather than achieve.

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

1. Be active in the process of becoming aware of personal assumptions about human behavior, values, biases, and preconceived notions
2. Create policies and procedures that enable organizations to work effectively cross-culturally
3. Develop and incorporate culturally relevant and appropriate programs, materials and interventions

Intended Audiences

Staff from state and local health agencies, community-based organizations, and others interested in developing inclusive environments.

Length of Training: 1 day. Shorter sessions may also be offered, depending upon trainer availability.

Master Trainer: Cerise Hunt, MSW
